

DIY COLD STORAGE COST SHARE

The South Carolina Department of Agriculture and South Carolina Specialty Crop Growers Association is proud to announce the Cold Storage Cost Share Program. Through funding from the USDA Specialty Crop Block Grant, farmers can get reimbursed up to $750 for installing a Cool-Bot cooler system.

The Cool-Bot utilizes a traditional window-unit air conditioner. It uses multiple sensors, a heating element, and a programmed micro-controller to direct your air conditioner's compressor to operate in a such a way to cool the room to 36° F, without ever freezing up.

FOR REIMBURSEMENT, THE FOLLOWING IS REQUIRED:

- Must be South Carolina Farmer
- Must produce specialty crops
- Attend a food safety workshop hosted by SCDA or Clemson Extension. Proof of attendance must be provided in application for reimbursement.
- Provide primary source documentation for all expenditures related to installation of the cold storage technology unit
- Enable an on-site audit by a key SCDA person to authenticate cold storage technology is being used solely for specialty crops
- Provide data, information, statistics and/or testimonials after six months and twelve months of installation of the cold storage unit to SCDA for the purpose of tracking project success
