HEMP PROCESSOR PERMIT APPLICATION GUIDELINES

- The South Carolina Department of Agriculture (SCDA) is administering the South Carolina Hemp Farming Program as authorized by SC Code Ann. § 46-55-10 et seq.
- Anyone processing hemp in the State of South Carolina must successfully complete the full application process with the SCDA and be issued a Hemp Processing Permit prior to processing and prior to taking possession of any in-program harvested hemp materials (biomass) or any other sort of hemp plant material. Processors who are growing hemp must apply for a Hemp Farming Permit. Handlers or service providers (storage facilities, couriers, etc.) who are not growing, or processing must complete the Hemp Handler Permit Application.
- A Processor Permit will not allow the Permit Holder to cultivate, farm, or take ownership of living clones or any other type of living plant material. If you wish to cultivate or take ownership of living clones or any other type of living (rooted) plant material, you must obtain a separate Hemp Farming Permit.
- Permitting Fees:
  - » Hemp Processor Permit Fee:
$100.00 Non-Refundable Application Fee per location
$3,000.00 Permit Fee per location
  - » Each separate address, even if under the same business name, will need its own Processing Permit, Dealer/Handler License, and Weighmaster License.
  - » Hemp Processor Permits will be issued once processing facilities have passed inspection.
- Failure to comply with state regulation may result in appropriate action, including suspension from the program and the destruction of hemp materials. Processors may only purchase hemp from South Carolina permit holders or individuals licensed or permitted by another state or Indian tribe.
- Federal law now requires that all states have a testing protocol to measure delta-9 THC post-decarboxylation – this means total THC must be not more than 0.3 percent.
- Federal law will no longer allow SC to have a remediation safeguard. Now hemp total THC must test at or below 0.3 percent (after accounting for the measurement of uncertainty, which is likely less than a 0.099% variance) or be subject to destruction.
- In accordance with federal law, cultivating or processing hemp with a total THC level greater than 0.5% will constitute a “negligent violation” of the Hemp Farming Program. If a Permitted Processor has three negligent violations in 5 years, he or she will face permit suspension for five years.
- Key Information:
  - » Background checks are required for all applicants.
  - » Applicant must be an individual. SCDA does not issue processing permits to business entities.
  - » This Hemp Processor Permit Application Packet is designed to provide sufficient instructions for completion by any individual who would be prepared to participate in the Hemp Farming Program. The application packets include a broad understanding of the program, but applicants should read the South Carolina Hemp Farming Act S.C. Code Ann. § 46-55-10 et seq. (which may be accessed here: scstatehouse.gov/code/t46c055.php), the USDA Interim Final Rule (which sets forth the national hemp regulatory scheme, and which may be accessed here: ams.usda.gov/sites/default/files/media/AMS\_SC\_19\_0042\_IR.pdf)
  - » Please make sure to fully review all application materials and regulations prior to contacting hemp staff with questions. SCDA is not in a position to offer direct consultation on completing a permit application or to educate individuals about the production or processing of hemp.

- » All costs associated with the production or processing of hemp are the responsibility of the permit holder, including both profits and loss. There are no sources of funding from SCDA to cover any aspect of hemp production or processing. Potential applicants should understand that at the present time it is possible that they may suffer a loss on their hemp processing operation. Limited production knowledge combined with an uncertain federal regulatory environment, recent changes to the sampling and testing protocol as required by the USDA that will make compliance more difficult, and unstable pricing creates significant risk for the participant. The focus of this program is the collection of research data and learning through experience.
- Application Deadline: New Processor Permit Applications will now be accepted year-round. Permits issued will be subject to the annual renewal requirements which will be one year from date issued.
- Please note that permits will not be issued until your facility has passed an SCDA inspection. Once SCDA receives and approves your processing application, SCDA will contact you to schedule your processing facility's inspection. Please allow SCDA up to 10 business days to process your application and schedule facility inspection.
- SCDA will only issue permits for processing facilities. SCDA will not issue permits to applicants who only intend to operate retail outlets.
- Please note that a Processing Permit only gives you the ability to process and possess hemp. As a reminder, "hemp" means the plant species Cannabis sativa L. and any part of that plant, including the seeds thereof and all derivatives, extracts, cannabinoids, isomers, acids, salts, and salts of isomers, whether growing or not, with a total THC concentration of not more than 0.3 percent on a dry weight basis. This Processing Permit does not give you the ability to process or possess materials with a total THC concentration of more than 0.3 percent on a dry weight basis.

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for a job or license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification<sup>1</sup> that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the job, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the job, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.<sup>2</sup>

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.<sup>3</sup>

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/ corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency.
